

It's not enough

Welcome to this edition of your Weekly Winning Resource all about the word apply. It is not enough to understand what you need to do, and it is not enough to want to do it. Knowledge and willingness can only make a difference in your success when you put them both to good use and apply everything you need to achieve the goals you desire. Success requires many factors being applied on a constant basis. Within our I've Decided community, we call them the 10 pieces of the puzzle for success. The very reason our organization was created is to provide you with everything you need. You simply have to apply what you have access to. Apply yourself everyday and you will move a little closer towards the life you desire one day at a time.
