

What determines your success?

Hello and welcome to this edition of your Weekly Winning Resource all about choice. It's no secret the choices you make today will determine the outcome you see tomorrow. Every single choice you make has a consequence. We learn this from a very early age. If you touch a hot stove, you will get burned. If you break the rules, you will find yourself in trouble. We know this. At some point in our lives, each of us have experienced a negative outcome because of a bad choice, and we have experienced a positive outcome because of a good choice. It's the law of attraction; you get what you give.

Your circumstances, even when not good, become your comfort zone. This is why people will typically find themselves right back in a bad situation even when they get the opportunity to opt for a better choice. Humans like comfort, it's in our nature. We have to go against this to make things better. No matter your circumstance, you have a choice to change it.
