

Multiply your success!

Welcome to this edition of your Weekly Winning Resource all about the word collaborate. At I've Decided, we absolutely love this word because it's what our community is all about. We believe that to be our best selves, we need the help of many! People have been collaborating since the beginning of time and our human history proves that those who participate are more successful. Together truly is better! When we collaborate, it exposes us to different perspectives, new ideas, more resources, and that works both ways. Collaboration makes a hard job easier and you will get further faster. Just like the quote above says, "it multiplies your success!" How often are you collaborating? If you're trying to do everything alone, we want to encourage you to rethink your plan and figure out a way to include others in your goals and dreams.

Your Weekly Winning Word:

Collaborate

Working together with others especially on a goal or for a special purpose.
