

Where are you going?

You're one week into 2022. Do you know where you're going? This edition of your Weekly Winning Resource is all about the word decisive. Most of us would never leave home without a clear understanding of where our destination is going to be. Our journey to success should be no different. If we are going to end up at the destination we desire, we must have a clear roadmap and an endpoint in mind. How clear are you about your goals and what you want to accomplish this year? We all want something, but there is a time when you have to shift your mind from wanting to deciding that no matter what, you are going to achieve what you desire. Being indecisive is like building a house on the sand. It will not withstand the storms that will come. We are on a mission at I've Decided to help you live a life decided so that you can set a goal and see it through to fruition. Living decided simply means that you know what you want, you're resolved to be successful no matter what, and that your yes means yes and your no means no. So simple, yet so hard. It is hard, but you are in the right place in our community to succeed. Our mission is your success!

Your Weekly Winning Quote:

"Once you make a decision, the universe conspires to make it happen." ~Ralph Waldo Emerson

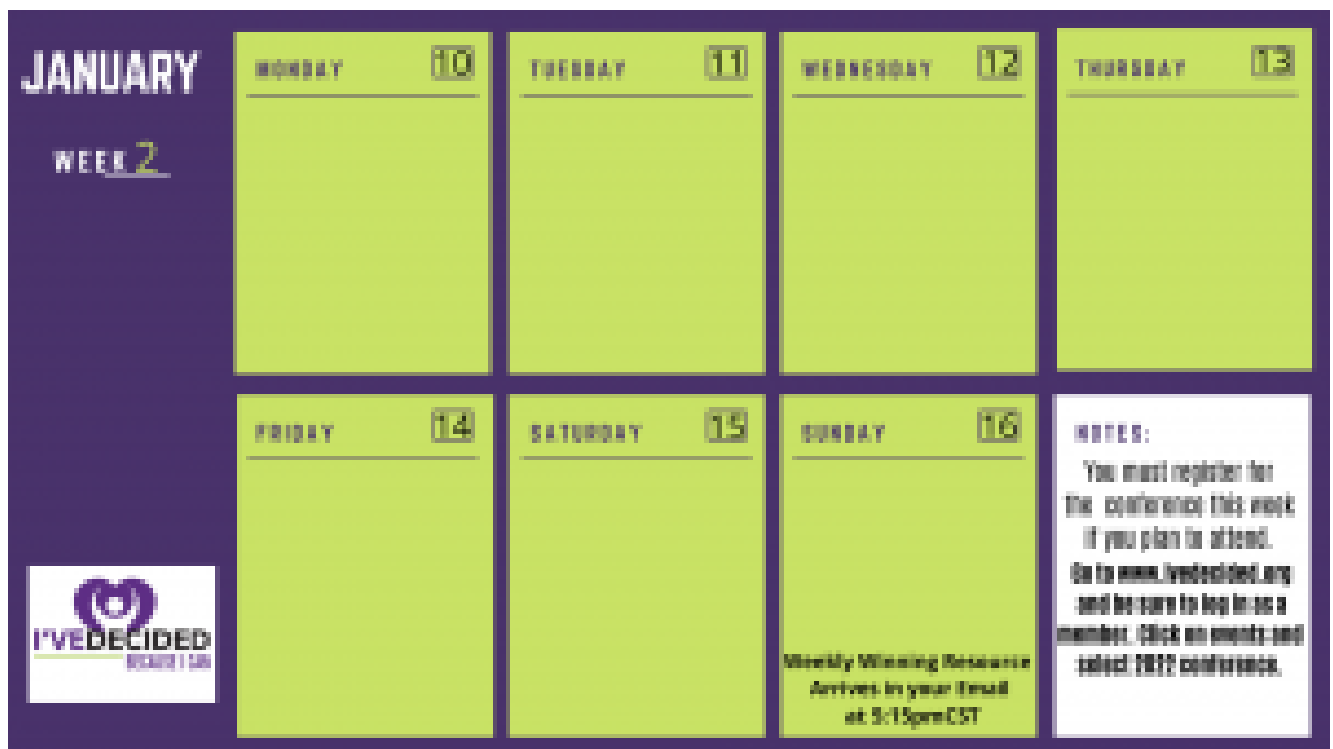

Would teams win games without a coach?

We all know the answer is maybe, but not very often. The players are talented and have skills, but they just simply perform better and make better decisions with an expert coach. Life is the same. A coach helps you see things clearly and helps you make decisive decisions. If you are not already a Launch My Success Member, now is the time to DECIDE to upgrade. You can opt for weekly group coaching or one on one coaching, whichever makes the most sense for you. We guarantee you will accomplish more in 2022 with the help of one of our certified Success Partners or we will give you your money back. Now, you have nothing to lose! Email us now and let us know you would like coaching.
