

How to be certain you will accomplish your dreams!

Let's face it, there are days when we're running on low and the fuel for the pursuit of our dreams seems to be gone. If this is you, you are not alone, it happens to all of us at some time or another. Your weekly winning resource has arrived just in time to refill your tank! This week is all about the word fervor. To have fervor is to have great passion, enthusiasm, and zeal. Sounds amazing doesn't it? Why is it so hard, and why do some people seem to have more fervor than others? We found that people who keep going, who stand even in the face of great adversities, never give up and ultimately achieve the success they desire, have some things in common. This type of wholehearted devotion can only happen when you have clearly defined core beliefs based on convictions, ideologies, and morals. The difference maker between those people who seem to rise above and those who shrink back is matching their talents to the things that are the most meaningful to them. You can be sure to accomplish your dreams when your purpose is aligned with the things that matter the most to you and the skills and expertise you bring. Fervor happens when values and gifts unite!
