

It's not luck

Welcome to this edition of your Weekly Winning Resource all about the word fidelity.

If you're Irish, this is a big week for you, and for those of us who aren't, we pretend to be. There's something magical about St. Patrick's Day...Maybe it's the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, the lucky four leaf clovers, or the fact that everyone wears green. Whatever it is, most of us are loyal in celebrating this fun holiday. You might say, we practice fidelity to wearing green on March 17th each year.

Fidelity is faithfulness to someone or something. The United States Marine Corps has a motto, "Semper Fidelis". Semper Fidelis is Latin meaning always faithful. If you are a marine or you know someone who is, you understand how serious this fidelity is between marines and their country. It's a really big deal, and let's be clear, always means always...No matter what! Did you know that when it comes to accomplishing your goals and dreams, you either have fidelity to fear or fidelity to your dream. Most of us have people and causes that we are loyal to, so we can relate to the marine motto of always faithful. However, how often do you apply fidelity to your ideas, your goals, and your dreams? When an idea is new, we tend to get fired up and excited about what we want to do but then the fire fizzles out. The continuing loyalty to our dreams is where we find ourselves having trouble. If you are going to achieve the things you want in life, you will need to take up the marine motto, Semper Fi.
