

It's not fast or easy!

Welcome to this edition of your Weekly Winning Resource and welcome to a new season, new month, and the last quarter of 2022. October is a great month to start where you are and forge ahead! Finish this year strong. Did you guess? Our Weekly Winning Word is forge. October is a crossroads month. It's a new season which brings some motivation for change and the desire to get back on track, but it also starts the last quarter of the year, which we know is a very busy time! With all the hustle and bustle of the holidays and the stress that comes with it, your brain may try and convince you to just let go of any goals for the year and pick up in the New Year instead. Don't let this happen, don't procrastinate. You must forge ahead and accomplish what you can. There is still plenty of time left in the year and you can get a lot done. Success is very hard, it's not fast or easy.
