

It's More Than Okay to Shine!

This week's edition of your Weekly Winning Resource is on fire! Well, not exactly, but the content is all about the word ignite! The time is now for you to ignite your passion. Passion is not just the path to your happiness, it is the fuel to your success! We understand that given the current climate, many people are feeling burned out and exhausted. If this is true for you, the thought of igniting your passion most likely sounds like a ton of work, and not even worth the effort anymore. At I've Decided, our mission is your success. We believe, if you dig in and decide now not to give in to the temptation of giving up, you will find a spark. That spark will catch a flicker, and that flicker will ignite a flame within you! We found a great deal of research that shows igniting individual passion and purpose is the solution for getting through stressful times. This is why it is of the utmost importance for you to reclaim your goals and dreams and ignite the passion within you that will fuel your purpose. Even more important, is exactly what our Weekly Winning Quote states, "Your light can ignite the flame in another!" It truly is our individual responsibility to be the best we can be and to let our light shine brightly!
