

Never doubt this!

There's no need for you to be out looking for a pot of gold this week for St Patrick's Day, you already have something way more valuable than that! You know what it is? You!! Yes, you are far more worthy than any size pot of gold. Welcome to this week of your Weekly Winning Resource all about the word, worth! How often do we allow our mistakes, what others think about us, or expectations, determine our value? It is imperative to the quality of our life as well as our personal success, that we see our worth outside of the choices we may have made, or based on outside sources and the views of others. Have you heard the saying, "God doesn't make any junk?" That's true! You are here because the Creator of the Universe decided you should be. How awesome is that?! This means that your worth was decided before you were even born. All you have to do is walk in it! When you walk in your worth, you work at being the best you can be, but you allow room for mistakes. You understand that although your choices matter when it comes to achieving your goals and dreams, it doesn't impact your value and your worth. Don't ever doubt your worth!

Your Weekly Winning Word:

Worth:

the level at which someone or something deserves to be valued or rated.
