

It's in the promise!

Welcome to this edition of your Weekly Winning Resource all about the word provision. If you believe you were created with a purpose in mind, then the next obvious step is to believe God will supply you with everything you need to fulfill what you were born to do. Wouldn't it be cruel for God to create you with a desire and a vision and then hold out on the things you need to complete it? Of course, that's why He would never do that. You can count on His provision, it's in the promise.

Your Weekly Winning Word:

Provision:

Providing, preparing, or supplying for a need.

Your Weekly Winning Article:

We found a great article about why you can always count on God to fulfill his promises. Check it out here: 7 Reasons why you can always trust God. Click Here to Read

Your Weekly Winning Challenge:

We talked about considering your life quite a bit this weekend at our conference. It is the first principle to unlimiting your life. There is a lot of value in taking time to consider things that have happened along the way in your journey and can remind you of things you've overcome. So, our challenge to you this week is to consider your life and write at least 3 times in your life you can recall where God has provided for you when you were concerned or worried about having the resources you needed. Journal it in your workbook.

Your Weekly Winning Quote:

“Where God gives vision, He always provides provision.” ~Joel Osteen

God gives you the provision and the steps for success but you have to take the action to make it happen.
