

It's a painful process!

Welcome to this edition of your weekly winning resource all about the word readjust. We've been saying since our last Virtual Motivational & Leadership Conference in September, it's not too late to finish this year strong. As we close in on the final two months of the year, we still believe that it's not too late. You can accomplish quite a bit in two months, but maybe you need to readjust some things. At I've Decided, we are all about BIG dreams, but your plan to accomplish any big goal you have must be attainable and realistic. Remember, it's not the time to give up or put off the things you desire, but it may be the time to make some slight changes and readjust so you don't set yourself up for failure. We believe in you and we know that you are capable of success. Make some slight adjustments and keep going to finish the year strong!
