

What do you want?

This edition of your Weekly Winning Resource is all about the word reposition. Reposition is a great word and one that can be of most benefit to you. Especially, if you are not satisfied with where your life's going at this time. In this season of your life maybe you find yourself alone because of a loss or having an empty nest since the kids are out of the house. Maybe you find yourself full of anxiety and overwhelmed with all that's going on in our world. Maybe you aren't satisfied with your career because you know there's more for you to do. Maybe you are struggling with bad habits, addictions, anger, or poor relationships. We all have something. Whatever it is that's distracting you from being your best and from fulfilling your dreams, today you can DECIDE to make some changes and reposition yourself for success! Our purpose at I've Decided is to help you achieve your goals and dreams whatever they may be. We know that you need motivation and inspiration to take action and this is why we provide you with 3 life-changing motivational and leadership conferences each year. It's not too late to finish the year strong and reposition yourself so that you can achieve the goals you desire. The time is now!
