

What are you waiting on?

Welcome to your Weekly Winning Resource all about the word wait. Repeat this out loud, "I am the person I've been waiting on, I am the change that I seek, I am the missing piece, I am the success story! Maybe the person you are waiting on is you! Here's the thing, everything you want, also wants you. Your purpose is waiting on you. In our society today, we live for instant gratification. When we don't achieve our goals and dreams as quickly as we think we should, we are likely to throw in the towel and give up on the things we desire to accomplish. Life has become about the convenience of things and this can really impact our success. Sometimes we need to wait, and more importantly we need to know what we are waiting for. Waiting isn't about sitting with our fingers crossed on a hope and a prayer. It's work, it's hustle, it's expectation, and it's trust. We wait in expectation that the best is yet to come while living in the moment as though it is the most important moment of our life. What we don't do is wait on an outside variable to change our life. If we do this, we will be waiting forever. You have to do something, you have the responsibility of changing your life. You are the success story!
