

What is Courage?

Welcome to this week's edition of your Weekly Winning Resource all about the word courage, Successful people aren't fearless, successful people simply don't let fear stop them from taking action towards their goals and dreams. At I've Decided, our mission is your success! We know that fear can be a stumbling block along your journey to success, and that's why we want to take time this week to focus on inspiring you to be a person of courage. There will never be a perfect time or a perfect situation for you to go for whatever it is you know you should be doing. People need what you have to offer now, and we don't want fear to stop you from being fulfilled. We want you to choose courage over confidence. It can be so easy to take the road most traveled, the one you're confident with, but remember, your success is most likely outside of your comfort zone.

Your Weekly Winning Word:

Courage:

The ability to do something you know is right or good even though it's frightening or difficult.

Your Weekly Winning Article:

Contrary to what some may believe, courage is not a quality you are born with or without, nor does acquiring courage necessarily entail doing something dramatic or astoundingly heroic. What then is courage and why should we aspire to have it? We found this great article that answers those questions and explains how you can develop courage. Check it out!

Your Weekly Winning Challenge:

Practice strengthening your mental muscle of courage this week. Set a goal to do something that is outside of your comfort zone, and will move you a step in the right direction towards what you want to achieve. Make sure it's a SMART goal. Specific, measurable, attainable, realistic, and timely. An example could be to post a live video on your social media page or sign up for a training you need.
