

What's your plan?

We hope this edition of your Weekly Winning Resource finds you well and that you had a beautiful Christmas! Let us be the first to wish you a Happy New Year! Here at I've Decided, we love the New Year! There is something so magical about the opportunities yet to be seen, and having hope that the best is yet to come. This week is all about the word plan. This is the time you are most likely setting your goals for 2021 and making your New Year resolutions. At I've Decided, our mission is your success and we know that if you're going to achieve whatever it is you want to accomplish in the New Year, you must have a plan. Like our Weekly Winning Quote states, "If you fail to plan, you plan to fail." If you want to set yourself up for success, then you must make a plan, and then work the plan. Creating a plan can seem time consuming and may seem like an inconvenience when you're ready to see things happen now, but without a plan your odds of success are less than 2%. So, the question we want to ask you is, "What's your plan?" When you have a plan, it takes your goal from simply being a hope or wish, and gives you the blueprint to turn it into reality.

Your Weekly Winning Word:

Plan:

A written account of your intended future course or action.

Your Weekly Winning Article:

To be clear, having a plan is different than having a goal. Many people have goals, but without a plan for achieving those goals, research shows that 92% of them will fail. What do the 8% who succeed understand the majority of us don't? They have learned a goal without a plan is just a wish. To help you create a plan that works, we found this great article on Evernote. Click Here To Read

Your Weekly Winning Challenge:

Write down your goal, and follow the steps in the Weekly Winning Article to create a plan for success.

Your Weekly Winning Quote:

"Failing to plan, is planning to fail." ~ Alan Lakein
