

When is the time?

When is it the time to go for it? Sometimes, you just have to make a quick decision and take action because the time is now! Welcome to this edition of your Weekly Winning Resource all about the word spontaneity. Are you someone who likes being spontaneous or someone who needs everything planned? Chances are, if you are a goal oriented, focused, and driven person, you will tend to shy away from being too spontaneous. Productive people typically desire the safety net of our routines. While there is power in being disciplined and having a schedule, there is also power in spontaneity. We found that having the ability to be a little more spontaneous can help you be more relaxed and help you deal with unexpected challenges with less stress. Spontaneity is really an incredible trait to have. At I've Decided, our mission is your success! We know that a part of success is being able to make quick, responsible, and unplanned decisions when necessary. Spontaneity definitely has its time and place.

Your Weekly Winning Word:

Spontaneity:

The state of being spontaneous – Coming or resulting from a natural impulse or tendency; Without effort or premeditation.
