

Your Happiness Depends on This!

Welcome to this edition of your Weekly Winning Resource all about the word disposition. We continue to be amazed at the timeliness of our winning words. Remember, these words were selected well over a year ago, and long before we had any idea what the year 2020 would bring. It's understandable given everything we are going through, our disposition may not be the greatest right now. We don't want you to beat yourself up, just the opposite, we want you to give yourself some grace if you haven't had such a "sunny" disposition. It's OK! What we would ask you to do is simply to contemplate and consider your disposition. If Martha Washington is correct in her quote above, and we believe she is, then really we can decide to have a better disposition, even in such circumstances as these. If we do, we will ultimately be happier no matter what we're facing. Dispositions are a person's core attitudes, values, and beliefs, that are the foundation of all behaviors. This means your disposition is of great importance and essential for you to lead a contented and successful life.

Your Weekly Winning Word:
